

Courtney Burial Ground (destroyed)

Johnson Township, Eckerty, Campground Road

Located by Louie Mitchell

There are no legible stones in this burial place.

Richard Eastridge said that Michael (died 1875) and Lena Courtney are buried there along with a son, John. Richard also said that he believed Mack Ott was buried in this cemetery when he died in a train accident at the Eckerty train station in 1910.

A Thomas Courtney was a doctor and served in the Civil War. He and his wife Mary may be buried in the Courtney Burial Ground. --LMB
